Market Commentary

Indian stocks had a troubled February with sentiment dented towards the end of the month by escalating tensions with Pakistan after deadly attacks in the disputed Kashmir region. The falls for the benchmark BSE Sensex index, which was down 1%, and the BSE Mid-cap and Small-Cap indices came despite generally buoyant performance in the wider Asian region as trade tensions between the US and China appeared to ease, especially towards the end of the month. The forthcoming parliamentary elections remain very much in investors' focus and while Prime Minister Narendra Modi has made some poll headway after his response to the Kashmir attacks, the result of the elections, which are to be held in April and May, is very difficult to call. Among key data releases, economic growth slowed in the last three months of 2018, coming in at 6.6%, according to official data. GDP growth for the 2018-19 fiscal year is now projected at 7% compared to a previous forecast of 7.2%. It was also reported that foreign direct investment (FDI) into India in April-December 2018 was down 7% on the same period in the previous year.
